2026 KEYNOTE SPEAKER

HAROLD REYNOLDS

Former MLB Player/MLB Network Analyst/BGCA Alumni Hall of Fame Member

A three-time Sports Emmy Award-winning broadcaster and former Major League Baseball player, Harold Reynolds got his start at his hometown Boys Club in Corvallis, Oregon, joining its baseball team because it was the only league in town that provided a full uniform. Reynolds went on to play twelve Major League seasons, earning two All-Star selections and three Gold Glove Awards. In 1991, he received the Roberto Clemente Award for his community service and philanthropic efforts. A member of Boys & Girls Clubs of America's Alumni Hall of Fame, Reynolds has been an analyst with MLB Network since its launch in 2009.

LOU PINIELLA

In 1984 he retired from play to become full-time coach of the Yankees. In 1990 he became the manager of the Cincinnati Reds, leading them to that year's World Series championship. In 1995, while coaching the Seattle Mariners, Piniella was named American League Manager of the Year by the Baseball Writers Association of America and Major League Manager of the Year by the Associated Press.

Welcome, West Tampa Boys & Girls Club Alumnus!
